

New Westminster Photography Club Crosswords

Historical Trivia - September 2013

This time we have you searching the history books for terms and people from the early days of photography.

Historical Trivia Clues

Across

4. The word we get from the Greek phrase "photos graphia"
6. This classic early box camera was one of the first to use roll film
8. The opening of the lens that is adjusted to control amount of light entering the camera.
9. The first successful picture was developed in 1827 by this man (surname)
12. Originally this kind of photograph was created using a camera with a rotating lens.
13. The Zorki IVK was manufactured in this country
14. Before the advent of digital photography, the production of film was the largest consumer of this non-renewable resource
15. He introduced the first flexible film in 1884. His contributions made photography accessible for all. He created the brand we all know today: Kodak (2 words)
16. A darkened box with a convex lens or aperture for projecting the image of an external object onto a screen inside (2 words)

Down

1. B&W fits this type of genre of photography, as does any photograph using tints and shades of one colour
2. The blur, or aesthetics of the blur, in the unfocused areas of a photograph
3. This filter is used to minimize reflections in direct sunlight.
4. The kind of camera you can use to safely photograph the sun (one of the earlier types of camera)
5. This brand of camera was used to create the first photographs of man on the moon.
7. To properly expose a scene in full sun, one should set the shutter speed to 1 divided by the film speed and set the aperture to f/16. This is known as the _____ 16 rule.
8. This type of photography is the practice of taking photos of the ground from an elevated position
10. In 1905, the US Army experimented with aerial photographs. What kind of aircraft was used?
11. The surname of two brothers were responsible for the first practical colour photography process. They developed the Autochrome plate in 1907.