

New Westminster Photography Club Crosswords

Know Them By Their Works – January 2014

EclipseCrossword.com

Famous photographers whose works are well worth studying.

The puzzle consists of photographer names, spaces and extra punctuation are removed. Impersonal pronouns used to try and not give away the artist by their gender.

Clues

Across

4. Known for fashion photography in the 60's and 70's, this artist became disillusioned at one point and burned most of their negatives. The artist revived their interest in photography only a year before their death.
6. This early pioneer of photography is quoted as saying "Nearly right is child's play"
9. One of this artist's best known images is a photograph of Miles Davis that appeared on the cover of Davis's "Kind of Blue" album.
10. Born in Russia, this photographer was known for often bizarre portraits of celebrities. One of the best known being of Dali amidst flying water and cats.
11. This artist's landscapes are stunning, and they achieved an unparalleled level of contrast using creative darkroom work.
13. This photographer is probably better known for their music work, but they are a song writer, actor, social activist as well as a photographer. This artist is also Canadian.
14. Well known for work that appeared in Vanity Fair and Rolling Stone. Known for an intimate style, the artist was said to often fall in love with the subjects photographed.
15. Best known for work with composites. This artist never went digital, feeling the darkroom better suited their interests.
16. Began photography at the age of 7, is considered the first "amateur photographer". At age 69 the artist's photographs from childhood were displayed at the Museum of Modern Art in New York.
17. Known for their fanaticism with the Golden Ratio, this artist shot only in B&W and was one of the first to use 35mm film (whose frame is a Golden Rectangle)

Down

1. A romantic painter, printmaker and inventor of the diorama, this artist created their images on silver plated copper sheets, the ancestors of today's photographs.
2. The pseudonym of Gyula Halasz
3. Known for portraits, maybe THE Portrait Photographer. This artist's most famous works are probably portraits of Churchill and Hemingway.
5. This Canadian photographer is known for nature work and currently lives in Shamper's Bluff, NB
7. Known for work during the Great Depression. Probably this artist's most famous work was an image of a migrant mother.
8. Named America's Best Photographer by Time magazine in 2001. Known for images of southern landscapes and decomposing bodies.
12. The Canadian Association of Photographic Artists is NOT named after this photographer's pseudonym and is best known for in-the-trenches war time photographs.

